Phnom Penh Post: March 25, 2021

The price of Cambodian milled rice on the international market has seen a slight uptick in the first quarter of this year from end-2020.

The premium “Malys Angkor” brand of fragrant rice is worth $825 per tonne, up $9 or 1.10 per cent from $816 in December, according to a price list compiled by the Cambodia Rice Federation (CRF) on March 23. The premium soft-cooking white rice variety costs $585 per tonne, up $17 or 2.99 per cent from $568, and premium-quality organic parboiled rice was $585 \(Read more\)

Duty-free access to Vietnam for 31 tariff lines

Phnom Penh Post: March 28, 2021

Thirty-one Cambodian tariff lines – mostly agricultural products – now carry the zero rate to neighbouring Vietnam for 2021-2022, the Ministry of Commerce announced on March 25. This comes as the Bilateral Trade Facilitation Agreement for 2021-2022 was formally ratified after the completion of internal procedures, with retroactive benefits for exports, the ministry said. The pact was reached by a 18th Cambodia-Vietnam Joint Commission meeting on December 22. The ministry invited exporters to apply for the Co Form S – available on its website – to ship goods of the tariff lines to Vietnam. \(Read more\)

Pattaya Mail: March 15, 2021

In an attempt to find new markets for Thai exports, the Ministry of Commerce is now looking at Canada as a potential high value export market for quality products. The ministry has set a target for the expansion of Thailand-Canada trade value, to at least 69 billion baht. Minister of Commerce Jurin Laksanawisit has held talks with the Canadian Ambassador to Thailand Sarah Taylor, during which the Minister of Commerce encouraged Canada to import more farm products from Thailand. ‘Troubling’ signs of Myanmar food price rises since coup: U.N. agency

Reuters: March 16, 2021

The U.N. food agency said on Tuesday rising food and fuel prices in Myanmar since a Feb. 1 military coup risk undermining the ability of poor families to feed themselves.

Myanmar has been in turmoil since the military ousted the elected government and detained its leader, Aung San Suu Kyi, with protests and a civil disobedience campaign of strikes paralyzing parts of the economy.

The World Food Programme (WFP) said food prices were rising with palm oil 20% higher in some places around the main city of Yangon \(Read more\)

SunRice to reward shareholders harvesting consistently bigger crops

Queensland Country Life: March 17, 2021

National rice processor and marketer SunRice is poised to change its grower shareholder structure to reward farmers with extra voting power if they consistently grow bigger crops.

SunRice’s A-class grower shareholders effectively control the constitution and management direction of the $400 million listed food and stockfeed company. The southern NSW-based global agribusiness prides itself on its farmer-built foundations and an ability to balance farm sector interests with achieving solid returns for its non-grower B-class shareholders.

However, grower numbers have been squeezed by drought, water allocation \(Read more\)

S. Korea to release more rice reserve to cope with supply shortages

The Korea Herald: March 17, 2021

South Korea said Wednesday it plans to release 100,000 tons of reserved rice next month as the long rainy season last year coupled with major typhoons reduced output of the grain.

The country plans to release the new batch of rice harvested in 2019 into the market in April, according to the Ministry of Agriculture, Food, and Rural Affairs.

South Korea already released 170,000 tons of reserved rice into the market over the first two months of 2021. \(Read more\)

The Malaysian Nuclear Agency (Nuklear Malaysia) believes the cultivation of a nuclear rice seed named NMR152 developed by them will help increase national rice production.

Nuklear Malaysia director-general, Dr Siti A’iasah Hashim, said the seeds can produce 8 – 10 tonnes of rice per hectare compared to only 2 – 3 tonnes using normal seeds.

“We hope to boost rice production by changing the method of cultivation and promoting the use of a high yield variety seed like the NMR152 and others which we are developing,” she said. \(Read more\)
