Khmer Times: 07 June 2020

Australia will continue the implementation of Cambodia-Australia agricultural valuable chain programme worth between $80 to US$100 million. The plan was floated when Veng Sakhon, Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries and Pablo Kang, Ambassador of Australia to Cambodia jointly chaired a demonstration of rice production using latest machinery and technique to farmers in Kampong Cham province. According to Mr Sakhon, the project is Australia's phase-III assistance for agricultural sector in Cambodia. \(Read more\)

Reuters: 01 June 2020

MUMBAI/NEW DELHI, June 1 (Reuters) - India has raised the price at which it will buy new-season common rice varieties from local farmers by 2.9%, the agriculture minister said on Monday.

For common grades of rice, the government has fixed the support price at 1,868 Indian rupees ($24.75) per 100 kg, Narendra Singh Tomar told a news conference. Buoyed by the increase in the guaranteed price, Indian farmers are expected to plant more rice in June and July. \(Read more\)

Bangkok Post: 07 June 2020

Thailand is among the world's largest rice exporters. For many years, the country held the global crown for rice exports except last year when it was beaten by India.

Thai fragrant rice, Hom Mali, is well recognised in the world market as a premium quality rice and commands premium prices in the world rice market. With this premise, Thai rice farmers should have moved out of poverty and be enjoying better livelihoods by now. Unfortunately, the opposite is the case. Most rice farmers are among the poorest in the country's.... \(Read more\)
